

Dr Linda Monaci
Consultant Clinical Neuropsychologist
Chartered Psychologist (BPS), Registered Practitioner Psychologist (HCPC)
Laurea, PgDip, D.Clin.Psy, C.Psychol., QiCN, C.Sci., AFBPsS
www.monaciconsultancy.com
linda@monaciconsultancy.com

CORRESPONDENCE ADDRESS:

Aston Clinic
26 Kingston Road
Surrey KT3 3LS
Tel. 020 8942 3148

NATIONWIDE LOCATIONS:

Main consulting rooms:
London,
New Malden, Reigate,
Guildford, Leatherhead,
Southampton, Portsmouth

Education, Training and Qualifications:

11.2010 - 02.2015	Cardiff University Bond Solon Expert Witness Certificates (Civil and Criminal).
09.2011 – 01.2014	Doctorate in Clinical Psychology (research on symptom validity), University of Essex, Essex.
07.2007 – 03.2011	Qualification in Clinical Neuropsychology (previously named Practitioner Full Member Qualification), Division of Neuropsychology, British Psychological Society (BPS).
09.2008 – 07.2010	Post-Doctoral Diploma in Clinical Neuropsychology, Glasgow University, Glasgow.
10.2005 – 11.2007	Statement of Equivalence Programme (BPS). UCL, London.
08.2001 – 02.2003	Psychologist Certification (equivalent to British Chartership) Padua University, Padua, Italy
09.1996 – 07.2001	Laurea in Clinical Psychology, Neuropsychology and Research Padua University, Padua, Italy, Final Mark 110/110 with laudem

Independent Practice:

2009 – Current: Monaci Consultancy Ltd established.

2009 – Current: Expert Witness: I have provided assessment reports for adults and older adults on neuropsychological issues for court proceedings. Claimant 60%; Defendant 40%.

Therapy: Neuro-rehabilitation

Areas of Expertise: Assessment of cognitive and emotional functioning, using psychometric and neuro-psychological objective assessments and by clinical interview. Areas assessed include:

- Acquired brain injury and neurodegenerative conditions
- Daily adaptive/social functioning
- Mental capacity
- Cognitive and intellectual functioning (e.g. IQ, memory)
- Executive functioning (i.e. adaptive behaviour, abstract thinking, mental flexibility, problem solving, planning, initiation, personality, especially drive, motivation, inhibition, and social behaviour)
- Symptom Validity Assessment / Malingering

Posts

11.2011 – 01.2017	Consultant Clinical Neuropsychologist Surrey and Borders Partnership NHS Trust
11.2011 – 12.2013	Honorary Consultant Clinical Neuropsychologist St Georges Trust, Regional neuroscience centre
04.2009 – 10.2013	Honorary Lecturer MRCPsych (Royal College Psychiatrists Training), Sutton Hospital
02.2009 - 10.2011	Clinical Neuropsychologist St Georges Trust, Regional neuroscience centre
02.2007 – 02.2009	Clinical Neuropsychologist St Georges Trust, Regional neuroscience centre Queen Mary's Hospital, Roehampton
10.2006 – 02.2007	Clinical Psychologist Frank Cooksey Neurorehabilitation Unit, Kings College Hospital
02.2005 – 09.2006	Clinical Psychologist Neuropsychology and Mental Health of Older People, East London and the City University Mental Health Trust

Professional Memberships:

Health & Care Professions Council: Registered Practitioner Psychologist (Clinical Psychologist).

British Psychological Society: Full Member of the Division of Clinical Neuropsychology; Full Member of the Division of Clinical Psychology; Chartered Psychologist; Chartered Scientist; Associate Fellow of the British Psychological Society; Special Register of Neuropsychologists. Member of the Expert Witness Institute. National Register of University Certified Expert Witnesses by Bond Solon.

Recent Publications:

- Giles, E. and Monaci, L. (2019). Post-mortem capacity assessments, New Law Journal.
- Van den Broek M, Monaci L and Smith J Personal Problems Questionnaire (PPQ): normative data and utility in assessing acquired neurological impairment. Archives of Clinical Neuropsychology (2019).
- Giles, E. and Monaci, L. (2018). Practical advice on capacity to litigate, New Law Journal.
- Giles, E. and Monaci, L. (2018). Borderline Capacity, New Law Journal.
- Giles, E. and Monaci, L. (2017). Medical Expert Opinion on Causation in Civil Claims, Expert Witness Journal.
- Giles, E. and Monaci, L. (2017). Addressing causation in medical reports – a neuropsychological case study. New Law Journal.
- Monaci, L. (2016). An overview of cognitive symptoms in chronic pain. New Law Journal.
- Monaci, L. van den Broek, M., & Smith J (2016). Exploring the psychometric proprieties of the Personal Problems Questionnaire in a sample of chronic pain patients. International Neuropsychological Society Conference (poster).
- Deacon, C. & Monaci, L. (2016). Expert evidence in foreign applicable law cases: a legal and medico-legal perspective. New Law Journal.
- Monaci, L. and Wood, F. (2016). Pulling a fast one? New Law Journal.
- Monaci, L. (2016). Could the recent application of the CJCA 2015 mean that Neuropsychologists may be asked to comment on whether symptoms reported are credible? Expert Witness Journal.
- Monaci, L. (2015). A brief review, increased dementia risk associated with traumatic brain injury, Expert Witness Journal.
- Monaci, L. (2015). Memory Block, New Law Journal.
- van den Broek, M., Monaci, L. & Smith J (2015). The Personal Problems Questionnaire (PPQ): a Clinical and Validity measure, 4th European Conference on Symptom Validity Assessment.
- Monaci, L. (2014). Malingering, Factitious and Functional Disorders, The Expert Witness Journal.

Additional information:

- Full-enhanced CRB clearance. Registered with the ICO. GDPR compliant.
- Personal professional indemnity insurance.
- Fluent in Italian, good Swedish and Spanish. Experience of working with interpreters.